

Academic life and interdisciplinarity: Learning from Experience

A two-day event for the retirement of Professor Iain Hampsher-Monk

Friday 6 May 1.00-4.30pm (Reed Hall, Upper Lounge)

The study of Political Thought: A discipline without walls?

12.45 Arrival and Coffee

1.00-2.45pm

Round-table – The study of Political Thought in between disciplines

Chair: Dario Castiglione

Participants: Terrell Carver, Cécile Laborde, Steve Smith

2.45-4.30pm

Round-table – Political ideas in the Humanities and the Social Sciences

Chair: Grace Davie

Participants: Jonathan Barry, Regenia Gagnier, Andrew Hindmoor, Richard Seaford

Retrospective Lecture 5.00-6.00pm (Xfi, Henderson Lecture Theatre)

Iain Hampsher-Monk, The Owl's last Hoot? The University and Political Thought

6.00pm Reception

Saturday 7 May 9am-4.45pm (Reed Hall, Upper Lounge)

The Examined Academic Life: Educating, Researching, Publishing, Leading, Administering

9.00-10.00am

Educating – Chair: Robin Durie

Speakers: Grace Davie, Nathan Widder

10.00-11.00am

Researching & Publishing – Chair: Catriona McKinnon

Speakers: Dominic Byatt, Andrew Hindmoor,

11.00-11.15am Coffee/Tea

11.15-11.45am History of Political Thought – The Journal, A brief History

Keith Sutherland & the editors: Janet Coleman and Iain Hampsher-Monk

11.45am-12.45pm

Academic Collegiality – Chair and concluding remarks: Dario Castiglione

Robin Douglass, Martin van Gelderen, Susan Jackson, Robert Lamb, Frank van Vree

12.45-1.45pm Buffett Lunch

1.45-2.45pm

Leading and Administering – Chair Claire Dunlop

Speakers: Jonathan Barry, Keith Zimmerman

2.45-3.45pm

Views from outside academia – Chair: Rob Lamb

Speakers: Robert Behrens, Dame Suzi Leather, Rhonda Lovell

3.45-4.45

Round-table: Academia now – Ivory Tower or Iron Cage? Chair: Andrew Schaap

Ross Carroll, Robin Douglass, Bice Maiguashca, and Iain Hampsher-Monk